FLOMATON

Special to The Journal.

Floamat, Ala., Nov. 20.—Now that the Journal has published our relief from quarantine restrictions and peace, sweet peace, is vouchsafed us, many pleasant happenings are the order of the day. Gay equipages with glossy steeds roll incessantly through our thoroughfares. Delighted tourists fairly beam as they stroll around during the coming and departing of trains. They gaze enraptured upon our lovely southern homes, even now glorious in autumnal, tropical splendor of grand trees rich in foliage, luxuriant vines and flowers galore. Autumn still sits smiling in the lap of winter, and every one is happy.

Some old and valued friends have been kept busy shaking hands all around Floamat. Brother Solie of the Methodist church, on a visit from Mexico, is among his church people of days gone by. He was entertained by genial and popular Dr. Will Abenathy, and Mr. John Drury, whose families are born Methodists.

Mr. Geo. Guest, who is as welcome and bright as sunshine in May, spent a few hours with his charming girl friends Thursday.

Two angelic beings from Mobile, Miss Mabel Rollison and Miss Maude Robertson, came up as invited guests to enjoy the dance given by the Club, Friday night at Drury's Hall. They were royally entertained at that popular resort "The Commercial," presided over by Mrs. Thornton, a queen of entertainers. Before their departure upon the midnight train, the gallant young men of the Club, ordered a tempting luncheon particularly acceptable and appreciated after the dance.

Misses Ethel Hayes, and Alice McDowell, of Century, attended the dance.

Mrs. Hillary Hubbard is at Montgomery enjoying the street fair. Those never weary saints, Messames Dean, Sowell and Fariss, gave a sweet treat last Wednesday to a very superior grade of home made candies and ice cream and old that ice cream was so creamy and good. The proceeds went towards payment of the new organ.

A wagon party drove out some miles to the country last Monday, for a day's hunt. The number of quail, wild turkey, squirrel and rabbits brought home was almost past belief. There are no turkey gobbling round here for Thanksgiving. To think of it, it gives one heartache.

The cry of fire disturbed our town Friday. A house owned by Mr. James McCurdy was in flames from a spark falling upon the roof. The close proximity of the building to the new Methodist church, created almost a panic. Great was the excitement but some hero, we are informed with composure supreme did not even remove his pipe, or cease taking leisurely pulls at it, but preserved his cool headed self-possession, and was the great factor in saving the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Lunny and son are guests at the Floamat hotel, whose proprietress has an enviable reputation as a most attractive hostess and whose smiles of welcome make many happy.

Mr. Stout preached his last sermon here Sunday night.

ST. ANDREWS

Special to The Journal.

St. Andrews, Nov. 20.—Mr. Hinton Folsom has sold his stock of general merchandise to Messrs. James and John B. Moore, who will continue the business at the old stand. We regret to lose such an estimable merchant as Mr. Folsom, but welcome the new merchants and wish for them abundant success in their new field.

Mrs. M. G. Post and little son, Gaydon, left Tuesday morning for a two weeks visit with their aunt, Mrs. E. Z. Taylor, at Wewahatcha.

There have been several transfers of real estate during the past 10 days. Since the B. C. & S. A. railroad is an assured fact, property is advancing and many are looking for homes here. The silver lining of the cloud is turning outward and we see a bright prospect for St. Andrews and all the bay country, and that in the near future.

The schooner Lucy H. loaded with naval stores and fish, sailed for Pensacola on Wednesday, and will now ply steadily between Pensacola and St. Andrews.

The motor schooner Cleopatra, with the two gasoline engines installed in her during the past summer, is again on the line between here and Pensacola, and will make regular trips carrying freight and passengers.

We rejoice that the fever is a thing of the past, that the quarantine is raised, and communication with Pensacola is made more easy.

Mr. Woodward and Mr. Max Kahn, two genial knights of the grip from Pensacola, called on the merchants here and we understand did good business with them. The merchants here seem glad to turn to Pensacola again as a buying market.

Rev. Mr. Dolphy preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday, having missed his appointments both in September and October.

We believe every fisherman is complying with the law this season, all having stopped fishing on the 15th of the month, although the biggest roe mullet run of the season is now just ready to go out.

Mr. R. L. McKenzie, of Gay, was on our streets on Thursday.

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS

We beg to inform our patrons that the fire last night will cause no interruption in our retail business. It destroyed the yard office and stables and did no damage whatever to the coal and other stock which was about half a block away.

We request that for the present all orders be telephoned to our downtown office (phone 33) and they will receive prompt attention.

FLORALA TRAIN RESUMED

IT'S RUN YESTERDAY

For the first time in about three months the train running between Pensacola and Florala departed from the city yesterday afternoon. The train was a few minutes late on account of waiting for train No. 1 from the north, there being several passengers on the latter train for points along the line.

The Florala train was discontinued when quarantine against Pensacola was established, and the schedule was not resumed until yesterday.

57,000 ACRES OF WEST FLORIDA LAND SOLD

Georgia Timber Men Acquire Vast Tract in Three Counties, Paying $400,000 for It.

The Jacksonville Times-Union of Sunday says: A deal involving 57,000 acres of choice virgin timber lands in Jackson, Calhoun and Washington counties was closed in Jacksonville yesterday.

A. H. Drummond of St. Andrews, representing the Moore Lumber Company of Garland, Pa., through Brobston, Fendig & Co., sold to the Betts Lumber Company of Ashburn, Ga., the tract mentioned for $400,000.

Mr. Drummond, who is largely interested in Florida timber lands, and one of St. Andrews' most prominent citizens, has been a guest at the Aragon during the past week. He was seen yesterday, and stated that six years ago he bought the property for a consideration of $33,000, and this shows how rapidly Florida timber land is increasing in value.

Coming to the south several years ago with a view of going to Cuba, Mr. Drummond drifted into Alabama, where he remained some time, then went to St. Andrews, where he settled. Since locating in Florida Mr. Drummond has been a large dealer in Florida timber lands, and is now considered one of the best known timber and real estate dealers in the state.

Mr. Drummond stated that although he is of the opinion that the large acreage of land just sold by his company would be turpentine, he thought the purchasers would hold the lands for some time, as turpentine is steadily on the increase, and Florida lands are becoming more in demand each day.

In speaking of his home, St. Andrews, Mr. Drummond said that the town was coming to the front all the time; that whereas there was no railroad leading into St. Andrews at present, one was building from south Georgia points, and would be completed into St. Andrews by the 1st of March.

"Deep water is sure to come," said Mr. Drummond. "We hope for an appropriation of $100,000 at an early date for deepening St. Andrews bay, one of the finest harbors on the Gulf coast."

And Still Another. A valuable tract of virgin timber land in Polk county, near Phosphoria, changed hands in Jacksonville a few days ago, when H. S. Stone, manager of the Florida Realty Company, sold the land to Captain C. H. Davis of Manatee.

A Wonderful Pagoda.

The great Buddhist shrine, the Shway Dagon at Rangoon, is no temple, but a great pagoda, rising from its platform to a height of 308 feet and all completely covered with gold leaf. This platform, with a perimeter of nearly 1,400 feet, is the place of worship. The pagoda itself has no interior. It is a solid stupor of brick raised over a relic chamber. A cutting made into its center has revealed the fact that the original pagoda had seven casings added to it before it attained its present proportions. The shape of the pagoda is that of an elongated cone. It is divided by Burmese convention into twelve parts: First, the base surrounded by a great number of small pagodas; then the three terraces, called Thabek; next the Bell; the Inverted Thabek; or begging bowl; the Baungjit or twisted turban; the Kyauin or ornamental lotus flower; the Plantain Bud; the brass plate for the Hti or umbrella; the Hti; the Sein dwan or artificial flowers; the vane, and, last of all, the Seinbu or bud of diamonds—"The Silken East," by V. C. Scott O'Connor.

Why Rossini Wept.

When Meyerbeer died his son composed a funeral march which "remembered his dead father." Full of emotion, the young man took it to Rossini.

"Play it, maestro," he pleaded; "play it. I wrote it in expression of my grief and mourning for my dead father."

Rossini took it up, placed it on his piano and played it. Tears rolled down his cheeks. Utter sadness dwelt upon his countenance.

"You weep," cried young Meyerbeer, beside himself with joy at the effect upon the great master.

"Yes, I weep," rejoined Rossini amid tears.

"And why?"

"Because," replied Rossini, "I am wishing that you were dead and it was your father who had written the funeral march."

Nilsson and Patti.

When Christine Nilsson, the great singer, was asked her opinion of various singers, she gave it very candidly of every one, including herself and Mme. Albani, but she never once alluded to Mme. Patti.

"You have not mentioned Mme. Patti," remarked the pertinacious interviewer.

"No," said Mme. Nilsson, "I have not. You are asking about singers. I do not regard Patti as a singer. I place her among the angels. A Patti only comes to a planet once during that planet's existence." Such an absence of stage jealousy has probably never been equaled.

Gospel

It is gospel truth to say that no DISEASES such as rheumatism, neuralgia, biliousness, colic, cold, sore throat, backache, boils, bowel troubles, skin eruptions, and all those caused by local inflammation, can be so quickly, safely and surely cured, as by the use of HAMLINS WIZARD OIL.

It gets right down in, around the nerves and blood vessels of the affected tissues, where the trouble is, and gently soothes and coaxes them back to health.

For all pain, chronic and acute, it is a remarkable remedy, and has no equal in safety and effectiveness in the medical world. Price 50c and $1.00. Fully guaranteed.

OFFICE OF CARY & CO. BURNED LAST NIGHT

Fire Originated in the Office, Supposedly from Defective Flue.

The office, feed house and barns of Cary & Co., on Gonzalez street, between Guillemarde and Tarragona streets were almost completely destroyed early last night, the fire being noticed and an alarm turned in shortly before 8 o'clock.

The blaze originated in the office building, where a night watchman was supposed to be on duty, but who, it is claimed, was asleep at the time. The origin is not definitely known, but the fire is supposed to have originated in the flue.

When the blaze was first discovered the office building, which was a small structure, was enveloped in flames. They spread quickly to the feed house and later to the barn, where the mules are kept. Before the arrival of the firemen the animals had been taken to other points and none were injured.

After their arrival the firemen had a hard fight to prevent the spread of the fire. On one side there are ten small cottages, all occupied by drivers of the company, and the efforts of the men were centered to save these and to extinguish the flames in the barn.

The coal and wood, which was stored some distance away, was not injured.

Interfered With Firemen.

A German sailor, whose name was not learned at the police station, caused considerable annoyance to the firemen last night when the blaze occurred at the Cary & Co. office. The sailor insisted upon directing the fighting of the fire, and although warned repeatedly to leave that vicinity he persisted in his work. Finally he was placed under arrest. At the station he gave every officer there a hard fight, and required the combined efforts of several bluecoats to place him in the dungeon.

Fought the Officer.

Police Officer Roach had a hard fight last night with a sailor on Palafox street. The seaman had been warned several times to leave saloons, but did not depart for his ship. Finally the officer was compelled to arrest him, and the two had a lively scrimmage in the middle of Palafox street. The man was finally overpowered and with the assistance of a bystander taken to the station.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD MEETING YESTERDAY

And Transacted Considerable Business, Re-Instating Inspector Dimars.

The City Board of Health held a lengthy session yesterday, there being present Mayor Bliss, Frank Reilly, Wm. Hays, Chas. H. Turner, Walker Ingraham and City Health Officer Pierpont. After the reading of the minutes the case of Sanitary Inspector Dimars was considered. He had been let out of office, when a number of inspectors were relieved of further duty, but upon an explanation by Attorney Jones the board re-instated him. Chas. H. Wells was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Philip Sanchez.

Chairman Hays presented a number of changes in the rules governing sanitary inspectors, which were read but not adopted, owing to the absence of some of the members. It was ordered, however, that a copy of the new rules be placed in the hands of each member and they will come up for consideration at the next meeting.

A communication from the Board of Safety was read requesting that the Board of Health instruct the city physician to attend all police officers and firemen injured in the discharge of their duties. This was discussed for some time, and the board passed a resolution instructing the city physician to hereafter attend any injured men.

A number of other matters were transacted during the session. City Physician Pierpont last night stated that he had always attended men connected with the fire and police departments who were injured in the discharge of their duty where he had been notified. In the recent case of a fireman being injured he had not been notified that his services were needed.

Yellow Fever Convalescent's

After combating a siege of yellow fever and overcoming the disease itself, the victim is left weak, emaciated, and in a delicate condition of prostration.

Convalescence from yellow fever is a critical period, and only proper and careful treatment can prevent the resulting after-effects which so often produce ailments that sometimes terminate fatally.

After yellow fever and during convalescence, the patient should be given a treatment of Vinol, our cod liver preparation without oil, which is absolutely the very best tonic-reconstructor known.

It is delicious to the taste, sharpens the appetite, calms and strengthens the irritable weak stomach, promotes easy and perfect digestion of wholesome and nourishing food, and soothes, cleanses and heals the inflamed and sore membranes, and induces restful, refreshing sleep.

Thus, the nerves are quieted and invigorated, normal body weight and strength is gradually restored, the blood is purified and made plentiful, the thin body is fattened, and the whole system is built up, and kept up to perfect health and vigor.

Vinol is not a patent or "secret" medicine. Everything in it is plainly stated on every bottle label. We are personally familiar with every particle in it, and absolutely know that if properly used for a reasonable length of time, it will do the user the greatest possible good.

Bear in mind that we sell Vinol with the distinct understanding and guarantee that it shall cost you nothing if you derive no benefit from its use.

We will return to you every cent paid us for Vinol if it fails to do for you what we claim it will.

We stake our name and reputation on Vinol, and only real knowledge of the potency of Vinol could induce us to guarantee it to you, our neighbors, friends and acquaintances; and you are absolutely secure in putting complete faith and confidence in us and our offer.

Begin a treatment of Vinol to-day on our guarantee.
